

University of the Pacific Scholarly Commons

John Muir Correspondence (PDFs)

1868-05-25

Letter from Jeanne C. Carr to John Muir, 1868 May 25

Jeanne C. Carr

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

Recommended Citation

Carr, Jeanne C., "Letter from Jeanne C. Carr to John Muir, 1868 May 25" (1868). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 1273.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/1273>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

Madison May 25.

Dear John -

I feel your presence and sympathy in all the gladness of the opening season, but I also feel very keenly the loss of you in my life. I meant to keep such even step with you through all the journey which I prayed might be a blessed one, and before I knew I lost every track and trace of you. This is strange because I wrote exactly as you directed both to Cedar Rapids and to New Orleans.

I am not a little heavy hearted about you, what have the tropic weeds done to our dear pilgrim youth?

To morrow I am going off into the woodiest of our woods with Shire Krumlin - to find

I only write a word now, so uncertain is it if any word will reach you. But I want to know when you are coming back, and if you should touch ~~native~~^{home} Soil at New York. I want you to come & see me in Bermont when I am going to spend the summer — I shall be in Castleton Rutland Co. after the 4th of July —

You welcome - Dr Cam has left the University. We shall keep our Madison home for the present and when our tent is pitched it will be easy to hang up a curtain for you - All send love and I am always your friend - Leanne C Cam.

Wm. J. W. W.

00443